READY TO CARE WISCONSIN

WHAT COULD CHANGE

The idea

Give qualified pharmacists clearer authority to use their training to help patients.

Any change to Wisconsin law would determine which services pharmacists could provide.

WHAT WOULD STILL MATTER

Good care still needs good judgment

Enough information.
The right training and resources.
A referral when another clinician should help.

More authority would not mean every service is available at every pharmacy.

AT YOUR PHARMACY

A question you can ask today

“What services do you offer, and what would my next step be?”

Availability and insurance coverage vary.
